Rules and Procedures: Vendors may begin setup only after the streets are closed by the City on Friday evening. Security in the area will be provided that night (Friday 11-4-22). No stakes may be placed in the roadbed. HAL assumes no responsibility for personal property left overnight or during the show. Artists may setup Saturday morning, but all supporting vehicles must be out of the festival area by 8 am. Booths must be open during the show hours (9 to 4). Breakdown must not begin before 4 pm on Saturday and must be completed by 5 pm when the City of Sebring will reopen the streets for traffic. Be sure to have a fire extinguisher and copy of your licenses and insurance on hand. Vendor pets are not allowed in the show area. Each vendor is responsible for collecting Florida sales tax. HAL will not provide any tents, tables, chairs, extension cords, or any other items for your booth or space. Upon arrival you must register at the HAL booth.

Those that participated last year sold out of most of their food and were very happy they came.
